FACTUAL BACKGROUND

- 9. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.
- 10. Defendant Boucher & James was a family-owned business from 1962 through 2012 that specialized in land planning, civil engineering, landscape architecture, surveying, and building code compliance. See October 23, 2012 letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.
- 11. Many of its clients were Pennsylvania municipalities but the company also provided services to individuals, developers, institutions and private corporations as well as out-of-state municipalities like the City of Millville, New Jersey. See Criminal Complaints of Commonwealth v. Mark W. Eisold, Commonwealth v. Ross G. Boucher and Commonwealth v. David R. Jones, attachment A to Criminal Complaint, which are collectively attached as Exhibit "B," and incorporated herein by reference.
- 12. In 2012, Boucher & James' lone proprietor, Defendant Boucher, sold his interest in the Company to its employees by way of an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (hereinafter "ESOP").
- 13. By way of background, an ESOP is an employee benefits plan that provides a company's employees an opportunity to buy company stock, thereby permitting them to obtain an ownership interest in the company.
- 14. By the time the Company transitioned to the ESOP, it employed approximately fifty(50) employees in a variety of roles including accounting.
- 15. When the Company became an ESOP, Defendant Boucher took a seat on the Company's Board of Directors (hereinafter "the Board") until 2018 and received a salary in his capacity as a Board member.

- 16. Aside from Defendant Boucher, the Board consisted of Robert Kent, Guy Marcozzi, and Stephen G. Bardlsey, Esquire, from 2012 through 2020, all of whom were volunteers, with the exception of Defendant Boucher, and all of whom were, on information and belief, personal friends of Defendant Boucher.
 - 17. From 2012 through 2020, the Board controlled the Company and met once a year.
- 18. Four (4) Managing Directors controlled the Company's day-to-day operations after the ESOP was created in 2012.
- 19. The four (4) Managing Directors responsible for the Company's daily operations were Defendant Eisold, Defendant Jones, Defendant Stern Goldstein, and Jon S. Tresslar.
 - 20. Each of the four (4) Managing Directors had a distinct role at the company.
 - a. Defendant Eisold, a licensed professional engineer, worked out of the Company's main office in Doylestown and provided engineering services for the Company's municipal clients.
 - b. Defendant Stern Goldstein, a licensed and registered landscape architect, provided services to clients for land planning and landscape architecture while also overseeing the Company's Accounting Services Department and Information Technology Department.
 - c. Defendant Jones worked in the main office in Doylestown, was responsible for business development, and oversaw the Company's Building Codes Department and the main office's administrative staff.
 - d. Mr. Tresslar, a licensed professional engineer and licensed professional land surveyor, provided services to most of the Company's private clients while also overseeing the Company's Surveying Services Department and Human Resources Department.

- 21. Prior to the Company transiting to an ESOP, Defendants Eisold, Jones and Stern Goldstein (hereinafter "the Managing Director Defendants") were junior shareholders in the Company.
- 22. From 2011 through 2018, the Township contracted with Boucher & James for various engineering and landscape architectural projects on and/or involving Township property.
- 23. In and around December 2012, the Township contracted with the Company for services not to exceed twelve thousand, one hundred and fifty-four dollars ($12,154) for the months of November and December, 2012 and further contracted with the Company for services not to exceed twelve thousand, five hundred and forty-nine dollars ($12,549) for the months of January and February, 2013. See Contract, which is attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by reference.
- 24. Said contract between the Company and the Township (hereinafter "the Contract") was executed and returned to Defendant Boucher on January 8, 2013. See January 8, 2013 letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and incorporated herein by reference.
- 25. Between 2012 and 2018, Boucher & James routinely billed the Township for work it claimed to have completed by sending invoices detailing the allegedly completed work as contracted between the parties.
- 26. Between 2012 and 2018, the Township routinely paid the invoices sent by Boucher& James for work it claimed to have completed.

- 27. In that time span, the Township paid Boucher & James with taxpayer funds collected by the Township on behalf of the residents of Cheltenham Township and which had been earmarked for Township needs.
- 28. In that time span, Boucher & James overbilled over one hundred and fifty (150) clients for services by a conservatively estimated two million, eighty three thousand, three hundred and seventy seven dollars ($2,083,377), according to the Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General. See Exhibit B.
- 29. According to the Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General, Boucher & James inflated its invoices to its clients, including the Township, between ten percent (10%) and twenty five percent (25%). See Exhibit B.
- 30. Between 2012 and 2018, the Township paid Boucher & James five million, four hundred and sixty three thousand, three hundred and ninety eight dollars and sixty four cents ($5,463,398.64) for services rendered.
- 31. Of the five million, four hundred and sixty three thousand, three hundred and ninety eight dollars and sixty four cents ($5,463,398.64) paid by the Township to Boucher & James, the Township paid Boucher & James three million, eight hundred and seventy-seven thousand, seven hundred and forty-eight dollars and nineteen cents ($3,877,748.19) based on a substantial number of invoices later determined to contain discrepancies and/or irregularities.
- 32. Between 2012 and 2018, Boucher & James overbilled the Township by at least sixty—two thousand, five hundred and seventy-two dollars and ten cents ($62,572.10), according to the Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General.
- 33. Based on the Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General's inflation percentage range of ten percent (10%) to twenty five percent (25%) as applied to the Township's total amount for invoices paid, the Township overpaid Boucher & James by an amount ranging from five hundred and forty-six thousand, three hundred and thirty-nine dollars and eighty six cents ($546,339.86) to one million, three hundred and sixty-five thousand, eight hundred and forty-nine dollars and sixty six cents ($1,365,849.66).

34. Based on the $3,877,748.19 reflected in invoices with discrepancies and/or irregularities as applied to the range presented by the Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General, the Township overpaid Boucher & James by an amount between three hundred and eighty-seven thousand, seven hundred and seventy-four dollars and eighty two cents ($387,774.82) and nine hundred and sixty-nine thousand, four hundred and thirty-seven dollars and five cents ($969,437.05).

COUNT I – CIVIL RICO CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP v. ALL DEFENDANTS

- 35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.
- 36. Between 2012 through 2018, Boucher & James, by and through its employees, agents and/or representatives, including the Managing Director Defendants, routinely and systematically overbilled clients, including the Township, by way of altered billing invoices that did not accurately reflect the proper amount of billable time for services rendered, and/or by way of fictitious billing invoices that were altered, created, and/or manufactured by employees, agents, or representatives of Boucher & James which billed for services not rendered by the Company.
- 37. Said invoices were routinely and systematically delivered to the clients, including the Township, by way of United States Postal Service.
- 38. The Company's use of the United State Postal Service in connection with, and in perpetuation of, illegal and/or fraudulent activity, including sending altered, inaccurate and/or fictitious bills or invoices to clients, including the Township, is a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1029, relating to mail fraud.

- 39. The foregoing acts are "predicate" acts within the meaning of 18 § U.S.C.A 1961(1).
- 40. The Defendants committed themselves, or aided and abetted in the commission of, at least two or more of these predicate acts of racketeering activity between 2012 and 2018.
- 41. The Company's act of overbilling clients began in or before 1997 by a method internally referred to as "three-factor billing" whereby the Company instituted a policy of multiplying the costs of labor on a project by three which, in turn, allowed the Company to triple its gross revenue and exponentially increase its profit margins.
- 42. In and around 2009, the Company's Accounting Department switched accounting software to Deltek accounting software (hereinafter "Deltek"), which, in turn, required the Company and its Accounting Department to make accommodations in order to reconcile the software's accounting features with the three-factor billing policy as previously described.
- 43. The Company's Accounting Department, at the behest of Defendant Boucher who directed the manager of the Accounting Department, instituted a policy and practice of creating a project number in Deltek named "Billing Billing Time Additions" which allowed a Company account to add hours to fictitious projects by manipulating an employee's hours as reflected on his or her timesheets without changing the timesheets. See Exhibit B.
- 44. The Managing Director Defendants possessed the authority to add time to bills in order to achieve the three-factor billing.
- 45. The Managing Director Defendants routinely and systematically added hours by hand to draft bills, and/or instructed employees, agents or representatives of the Company to add hours by hand to draft bills, a practice referred to in the Company as "Labor Adjustments," in order to achieve three-factor billing then provided the draft bills to the Accounting Department for finalization to send to clients, including the Township.

- 46. Between 2012 through 2018, Boucher & James overbilled approximately one hundred and fifty (150) clients, including the Township, by way of, in whole or in part, its three-factor billing policy and practice, resulting in at least a two million, eighty-three thousand, three hundred and seventy-three dollar ($2,083,373) illegal and fraudulent windfall for the Company.
- 47. On information and belief, the Company paid its employees from revenues generated through services rendered, or purported to be rendered, and which were reflected in invoices billed to clients, including the Township, using its three-factor billing policy and practice.
- 48. Between 2015 through 2018, Boucher & James awarded employees bonuses based on profits realized by the Company for the previous fiscal year.
- 49. Said profits were based, in whole or in part, on profits illegally and fraudulently realized by way of its three-factor billing policy and practice to clients, including the Township, as perpetuated by the Company's three-factor billing policy and practice.
- 50. Said employee bonuses were therefore based, in whole or in part, on profits illegally and fraudulently realized by way of its three-factor billing policy and practice to clients, including the Township, as perpetuated by the Company's three-factor billing policy and practice.
- 51. Between 2015 through 2018, the Managing Directors received bonuses based, in whole or in part, on profits illegally and fraudulently realized by way of its three-factor billing policy and practice to clients, including the Township, as perpetuated by the Company's three-factor billing policy and practice.

- 52. The Company was engaged in, and its activities, both legal and illegal, affected interstate and foreign commerce within the meaning of RICO, 18 U.S.C.A. § 1962(c).
- 53. Each of the Defendants associated with the Company conducted or participated directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the enterprise's affairs through a "pattern of racketeering activity" within the meaning of RICO, 18 U.S.C.A. § 1961(5), in violation of § 1962(c).
- 54. Specifically, at all relevant times, the Defendants engaged in "racketeering activity" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C.A. § 1961(1) by engaging or aiding and abetting in the acts set forth including:
 - a. The Company, by and through its employees, agents and representatives, including the Managing Directors, systematically overbilled clients, including the Township, for services rendered and/or billed for services not rendered;
 - b. Defendants Eisold and Jones routinely and systematically added hours not worked to draft bills, which were then incorporated into the finalized bills sent to clients, including bills sent to the Township, which were then paid by the clients, including payments made by the Township;
 - c. Defendants Eisold, Jones and Stern Goldstein, on information and belief, approved timesheets reflecting fraudulent times entered on said timesheets, which, in turn, were ultimately sent as invoices or bills to, and paid by, the Company's clients, including the Township;
 - d. Defendants Eisold, Jones and Stern Goldstein profited directly, as shareholders of the Company, from the ESOP transaction;

- e. Defendant Stern Goldstein oversaw and ran the Accounting Department, which was used as the mechanism by which the Defendants overbilled and/or created fictitious bills that were sent to, and paid by, clients, including the Township;
- f. Defendant Boucher instituted the three factor billing policy at the Company, which was then used as standard billing practice and procedure by Defendants Eisold, Jones and Stern Goldstein in the course of their employment with the Company and to their own personal benefit as shareholders and/or Managing Directors;
- g. Defendant Boucher instructed the Accounting Department to reconcile the three factor billing policy with Deltak so that the three factor billing practice could continue at the Company;
- h. When the Company contracted with two (2) different clients for similar projects, Defendant Eisold had a practice of billing both clients as if the same work had completed on the same day when, in actuality, the Company had only completed work on behalf of one client and not done any work on behalf of the other client;
- i. Defendant Boucher maintained the only salaried position on the Company's Board from 2012 through 2018, which was paid for, in part or in whole, through the illegal proceeds obtained by way of the billing scheme as described above.
- 55. The acts of racketeering activity referred to in the previous paragraph constitute a "pattern of racketing activity" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C.A. § 1961(5). The acts alleged were related to each other by virtue of common participants (the Company, Defendant Boucher, the Managing Director Defendants), common victims (the Company's municipal and private clients, including the Township), a common method of commission (the Company's three-factor billing policy; employee bonuses; use of the U.S. mail services), a common purpose, and a common result of denying to the Plaintiff the benefits of the honest services of, and honest payment for those services to, the Company.

- 56. As a result of Defendants' violation of 18 U.S.C.A. § 1962(c), Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, has suffered damages, and the Defendants have profited in an amount not yet determined but certainly in excess of $50,000.
- 57. As a result of its misconduct, the Defendants, Boucher & James Inc. Consultant Engineers, Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones and Judith Stern Goldtein, are liable to Cheltenham Township for its losses in an amount to be determined at trial.
- 58. Pursuant to RICO, 18 U.S.C.A. 1964(c), Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, is entitled to recover threefold its damages plus costs and attorney's fee from the Defendants, jointly and severally.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, demands a judgment against the Defendants, Boucher & James Inc. Engineering Consultants, Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones, and Judith Stern Goldstein, jointly and severally, as follows: an award of compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, plus interest; an award of punitive damages; an award of attorneys' fees; and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – CONVERSION CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP v. ALL DEFENDANTS

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.

- 60. Any and all money paid to Boucher & James by the Township for services not rendered due to its overbilling practice constitutes conversion of taxpayer funds by the Defendants.
- 61. Any and all money paid to the Managing Directors and/or employees by way of bonuses and/or salary constitutes, in part or in whole, taxpayer money as it is a derivative of illegal proceeds obtained by way of the overbilling scheme.
- 62. As a result of Defendants' conversion, the Township has suffered irreparable harm and will continue to suffer irreparable harm.
 - 63. Defendants' tortious conduct was willful and malicious.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, demands a judgment against the Defendants, Boucher & James Inc. Consultant Engineers, Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones, and Judith Stern Goldstein, jointly and severally, as follows: an award of compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, plus interest; an award of punitive damages; and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III – COMMON LAW FRAUD CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP v. ALL DEFENDANTS

- 64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.
- 65. As set forth above, Defendant Boucher & James, by and through the Managing Director Defendants and Defendant Boucher, defrauded its clients, including the Township, from taxpayer funds and of taxpayer funds to which it would otherwise used in a different capacity.
- 66. Defendants made misrepresentations of material facts, deliberately concealed and omitted to disclose material facts, and engaged in other conduct which amounts to a scheme to defraud the Township, including, among other things:

- a. Obtaining taxpayer money through false pretenses by way of systemic overbilling practice;
- Inflating the Company's worth which, in turn, caused higher bonuses to be paid to the Managing Director Defendants and other employees, agents and representatives of the Company;
- c. Inflating the Company's worth which, in turn, created a windfall when the shareholders sold their stake in the Company to form the ESOP.
- 67. Defendants misrepresentations, omissions and/or concealment of material facts and scheme and artifices to defraud were made and undertaken intentionally or recklessly for the purpose of benefiting themselves economically and harming the Township.
- 68. The Township reasonably and justifiably relied to its detriment on the truthfulness of Defendants' representations, on the completeness of its disclosures of material facts and without knowledge of its scheme and artifice to defraud it, namely that the Company's billing invoices were honestly prepared and accurately represented the services completed as agreed to on behalf of the Township.
- 69. Defendants knew or should have known that the Township would rely and intended that it so rely. But for Defendants misrepresentations, omissions, concealment of material facts and fraudulent course of conduct, the Township would not have continued its dealings and transactions with Defendants.
- 70. The Township at no time knew or had reason to know in the exercise of due diligence or reasonable care that Defendants were engaged in misrepresentations, omissions and fraudulent conduct.

71. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' misrepresentations, omissions, concealment of material facts and fraudulent course of conduct, the Township has been injured in an amount as yet to be determined but over $50,000.00 and, as Defendants' actions were knowing, intentional, willful, wanton and reckless, the Township is entitled to an award of punitive damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, demands a judgement against the Defendants, Boucher & James Inc. Consultant Engineers, Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones, and Judith Stern Goldstein for compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, plus interest; an award of punitive damages; and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT IV – UNJUST ENRICHMENT CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP v. ALL DEFENDANTS

- 72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.
- 73. Defendants have obtained benefits to which they are not entitled to, namely taxpayer money obtained by way of fraudulent billing practices, as is more fully described herein.
- 74. Defendants have been solely enriched by their actions at the expense of the Township.
 - 75. It would be inequitable for Defendants to retain the improperly obtained benefits.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Cheltenham Township, demands a judgement against Defendants, Boucher & James, Inc., Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones, and Judith Stern Goldstein, for an award of compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, plus interest; an order requiring Defendants, Boucher & James, Inc., Ross Boucher, Mark Eisold, David R. Jones, and Judith Stern Goldstein, to disgorge all such money and property; and any such further and additional relief as the Court deems just and appropriate under the circumstances.

COUNT V – BREACH OF CONTRACT CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP V. ALL DEFENDANTS

- 76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth in extensio.
- 77. As referenced above, the Township signed a written contract with Boucher & Jamesfor services in 2012.
- 78. The Contract covered, among other things, the Scope of Services, Compensation, Term and Consultant Responsibilities as contracted and agreed upon between the Township and Boucher & James.
- 79. Boucher & James, by and through the Managing Director Defendants, agreed to provide services to the Township for payment.
- 80. Boucher & James, by and through the Managing Director Defendants, maintained the responsibility of ensuring "that both the time constraints and the financial constraints of this Contract are not compromised without adequate written notification and explanation as to the nature of such compromise. [Boucher & James] shall be responsible to submit proper documentation for payment of services authorized by this Contract in a manner prescribed by the Township and according to law and set forth in [Boucher & James'] proposal dated October 23, 2012."
- 81. At all relevant times hereto, the Contract was, on information and belief, applied in full force between the Township and Boucher & James.
- 82. SUBJECT: ENGINEERING QUALIFICATIONS AND PROPORSAL

CHELTENHAM TOWNSHIP, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PA

Dear Bryan:

Boucher & James, Inc. is pleased to submit the following Qualifications Information and Proposal to provide Engineering Services to Cheltenham Township. We have an understanding of your requirements and needs based on our meeting and phone conversations, and are confident we have the technical expertise to serve and meet the needs of Cheltenham Township.

Boucher & James, Inc. is a multi-disciplined firm comprised of Civil and Municipal Engineers, Landscape Architects, Planners, Surveyors, Environmental Hydrogeologists and Scientists, Building Inspection and Code Enforcement Professionals. Mr. Bryan T. Havir, P.P., AICP, Acting Township Manager Cheltenham Township October 23, 2012

Boucher & James, Inc. is a firm that is large enough to provide the level of service desired by Cheltenham Township yet small enough to know the importance of providing quality, personalized service to its municipal clients.

Amy Riddle Montgomery, P.E, will be the Cheltenham Township Client Representative from Boucher & James, Inc. Amy is a Lehigh University Engineering Graduate and is one of Boucher & James Inc.'s five Associates. Amy serves as the Assistant Director of Boucher & James, Inc's Municipal Engineering Department. We are confident she will provide you with the expertise and level of service that you need and desire for Cheltenham Township. In addition, Amy is supported by several departmental staff whose sole purpose is to provide assistance and support to municipal representatives like Amy, so the representatives are able to meet deadlines and client needs.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

Based on our meeting and phone conversations it is my understanding that you would like Boucher & James, Inc. to assist Cheltenham Township by providing the following engineering services.

Stormwater - Analysis, problem solving and consulting services related to Cheltenham Township stormwater issues and projects including but not limited to involvement in the Glenside Flood Control Project the Township is currently addressing.

SALDO – Review of land development plans, subdivision plans and associated documents and applications submitted by property owners and developers wishing to subdivide and develop land in Cheltenham Township.

General Engineering – Hold office hours eight hours per week (two days of four hours each) more or less depending on need during which time we would provide engineering consulting services for general issues and matters requiring Amy's technical expertise. In addition, provide other professional services that may be requested by the Township that fall within Boucher & James, Inc's service capabilities.

Meetings – Attendance at weekly Commissioner's Working Committee meetings, the monthly Commissioner's Legislative meeting and the monthly Planning Commission meeting. While we will plan to attend all of these meetings, we understand that our presence at the meetings may not always be required by you and or the Commissioners.

COMPENSATION

Boucher & James, Inc. will invoice for our services on an applied rate basis in accordance with the attached rate schedule. The rate schedule has been highlighted to identify the hourly rate for Amy Montgomery and a few other team members that may be called upon to assist Amy. By utilizing Amy's support staff it will help us help you in keeping the cost of our services as economical as possible for certain tasks that can be accomplished by team members with lower hourly billing rates than Amy.

You will see that there are rates shown on the schedule for multiple positions within our firm. While we offer every discipline that would likely be needed by Cheltenham Township, I understand that your plan for the Township is to utilize three other firms in addition to our firm for different services than the ones I noted in the proceeding SCOPEOF SERVICES section of this proposal letter. BCM Engineers will continue to provide services in the area of sanitary sewers. Arrow Engineers will continue to assist the Township with Act 537 Plan matters and updates and KCI will continue to provide construction observation services associated with developer land development projects.

Enclosed are ten (10) copies of this letter proposal, rate schedule and our company qualification information. I believe this will be ample for you to be able to provide our information to each of the Commissioners if you choose to do so. Please contact us if you have any questions or require additional information. We look forward to working with you, the Commissioners and your staff.

If you find everything meets with your approval please let me know when you would like to meet with Amy so she can begin her involvement with projects and reviews that are currently in progress. The more time she has to spend with your departing Township Engineer the easier it will be for her to be able to meet your expectations in picking up and handling existing projects.

Thank you for this opportunity to submit our information and express our interest in working with Cheltenham Township.

BOUCHER & JAMES, INC. BACKGROUND

Special Agent Joseph Daniels and your Affiant conducted an investigation into fraudulent overbilling practices at Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers ("Boucher and James").

Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers Corporate Headquarters is located at 1456 Ferry Road, Building 500, Doylestown, PA 18901. Regional Offices are located at 559 Main Street, Suite 230 Bethlehem, PA 18018, and at 2756 Rimrock Drive Stroudsburg PA18360. Ross Boucher then assumed a seat on the Board of Directors which he held until 2018. In that role, he received a salary from the Company.

Since the company converted to an ESOP, it has been controlled by a volunteer Board of Directors that is required to meet once per year. Until May 2020, there were three Board members. They were Guy Marcozzi, Robert Kent, and Stephen G. Bardlsey Esq. These Board members were selected by Ross Boucher, and are his personal friends. In May, 2020 these Board members resigned and the Board was reconstituted.

Beginning with the creation of the ESOP in late 2012, Boucher & James' day-to-day operations were managed by four executive officers, each of whom held the title of Managing Director. The four Managing Directors had a defined area of responsibility outlined below. In 2020, David Jones, Judith Stern Goldstein and Mark Eisold have all resigned from their positions and left the company.

- Mark Eisold is a licensed Professional Engineer and was responsible for providing engineering services to the Company's municipal clients served out of the Doylestown office.
- Judith Stem Goldstein is a licensed and registered Landscape Architect and was responsible for providing services related to land planning and landscape architecture. Her administrative duties included overseeing the Company's Accounting Services Department and the Information Technology Department.
- David R. Jones worked out of the Doylestown office and was responsible for business development.
   His administrative duties included overseeing the Company's Building Codes Department and the Doylestown office administrative staff.
- Jon S. Tresslar is a licensed Professional Engineer and is also licensed as a Professional Land Surveyor. Tresslar is responsible for providing services to all of the Company's private-sector clients, including those served out of the Doylestown office, except for the small number of private sector clients served by Goldstein. Tresslar's administrative duties include overseeing the Company's Surveying Services Department and the Human Resources Department.

On October 29, 2018, Special Agent Daniels met with Jon Tresslar. Tresslar had been employed by Boucher & James since January 2011. Tresslar stated that in February 2018 he approached the Board of Directors and senior officers based upon a concern that billing practices at Boucher & James were causing some clients to be billed for work hours not performed. He believed that fictitious hours were being added to client invoices and billed to clients to increase the revenue of the company. He took his concerns to the other Managing Directors and the Managing Directors refused to engage in a meaningful review of the billing practices.

Boucher & James required all employees to submit timesheets for hours worked by project. These timesheets were submitted and reviewed by supervisors prior to posting to the timekeeping system. Once the timesheets were final, the information was used to create "pre-bills" in the accounting system, Deltek. These pre-bills were reviewed by the project managers and handwritten changes were noted on the pre-bills. These changes included transfers to move hours to a different project, write-offs and the addition of hours. After the changes were noted on the pre-bills, members of the Accounting Department would input the changes into Deltek. The edited version was then presented for final review to the Project Manager and the Managing Director if that was a different person.

KORMAN CORPORATION

Tresslar relayed that, in 2017, Eisold told him that he (Eisold) planned to perform a small amount of work for Korman Corporation, a private-sector client. Under Boucher & James's contracts with Korman, services were to be billed on a time-and-materials basis for actual hours worked. Because Korman was a private-sector client, Tresslar reviewed the bills sent by Eisold to Korman. Tresslar obtained the total fees generated for the hours worked by all employees on the Korman projects as reflected in the Project Detail Reports. Tresslar compared that number to the total fees billed to Korman for hours worked on the same projects, as reflected in the final invoices Boucher and James sent to Korman. The amount billed to Korman for hours worked was significantly higher than the total fees generated for hours worked on those same projects as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. Tresslar discovered that Eisold had overcharged Korman by approximately 25%.

After finding the discrepancy, Tresslar asked Gaye Singley, the head of the Accounting Department for Boucher and James, for backup documentation to support the bills that Eisold had sent to Korman. He was provided copies of Eisold's "draft bills," also known as pre-bills. In reviewing the documentation, Tresslar saw that Eisold had started with the computer printout of actual hours worked as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. However, next to the totals for various employees, including himself, Eisold had jotted down in his own handwriting certain numbers to be added to the totals. Tresslar performed a spot check of the raw timesheets that had been submitted by employees with the final invoices approved by Eisold. In each case, the spot check confirmed that the handwritten hours Eisold had added to the draft bill had never been documented on time sheets submitted by the employees. Eisold's fraudulent addition of hours went so far as to result in an employee, Tim Wallace, working 34 hours in a single day, September 22, 2017. Tresslar found numerous hours had been added for multiple employees unsupported by timesheets.

			POLICE CRIMINAL COMPLAINT
Docket Number:	Date Filed:	OTN/LiveScan Number	Complaint/Incident Number 43-1521
Defendant Name:	First: MARK	Middle: W	Last: EISOLD

LOWER MAKEFIELD TOWNSHIP

Tresslar said all of Eisold's other clients were municipalities, whose invoices were paid with taxpayer dollars. Two of Eisold's largest clients were Lower Makefield Township in Bucks County and Springfield Township in Montgomery County. After finding the billing discrepancy with the work performed for Korman, Tresslar reviewed billing records for one of Eisold's projects for Lower Makefield Township. His analysis suggested that 38.25 hours of Eisold's billed time and 210.75 hours of other employee's billed time had never actually been worked. The hours represented a $14,321.00 fraudulent over-charge for a single project.

Tresslar said Eisold's billing amounts to approximately two million dollars per year, and approximately ten million dollars over the five years since the ESOP was founded. Of the two Eisold projects that Tresslar examined, Eisold's bills were inflated by 10% and 25%, respectively. A forensic accounting review of Lower Makefield project timesheets and invoices confirms overbilling by Boucher & James.

When Tresslar brought his findings to the attention of the other Managing Directors, one Managing Director, David Jones, told Tresslar, "I thought this had stopped."

On February 24, 2018, Tresslar prepared a memorandum detailing his findings and on February 27, 2018 Tresslar submitted a letter to the Board of Directors alerting them to the issues he had discovered and attaching his memorandum. On February 28, 2018, Ross Boucher sent an email advising that he was no longer Chairman of the Board of Directors.

THREE-FACTOR BILLING SCHEME

On April 7, 2020, Gaye Singley was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Singley said she was hired by Boucher and James in 1997, and became manager of the Accounting Department in 2005. Singley said Ross Boucher, the then owner and president of the company, instituted the three-factor for billing.

Docket Number:	Date Filed:	OTN/LiveScan Number	Complaint/Incident Number 43-1521
Defendant Name:	First:	Middle:	Last:
	MARK	W	EISOLD

The billing on projects was expected to be three times the cost of labor for a particular project. Singley explained that an employee making $50.00 an hour would be paid at his/her rate, but the client would be billed at $150.00 per hour for that employee's time. The three-factor expectation was in place when Singley started working at Boucher and James. The company switched to Deltek accounting software in 2009. She was trained to use the Deltek system and became the trainer for the company.

Adding hours that were not worked was one method used to reach the three-factor. As there is no cost to hours that were not worked, these hours will always increase the profit margin. Singley was told by Ross Boucher to find a way in Deltek to add hours to the invoices without adding them to the timesheets. She achieved this by creating a project number named Billing Billing Time Additions. Once the hours were added to the projects they would simultaneously be backed out of the Billing Billing Time Additions project number, thereby reconciling the employee's hours. Billing Billing Time Additions was a ficticious project.

Singley said timesheets are submitted to the Project Managers and then the Managing Directors for approval before being turned into the Accounting Department for posting. Pre-bills are created and are given to the Project Manager who marks up any changes in pen. When the pre-bills are sent to the Managing Director for approval, the Managing Director would be able to determine if the three-factor was achieved in the billing. The prior versions of the pre-bills are also provided to the Managing Director so they can see all of the changes that were made.

Singley said Mark Eisold was adding hours to his bills. Singley had done his billing in the past and has seen his invoices marked up during the 2012 – 2018 years. Singley said Eisold has aggressively added hours since she did his billing back in 1997. Singley said she talked to Ross Boucher about it and Judith Stern Goldstein about it multiple times. She received no feedback as a result of those conversations.

 Continued *****

Singley said David Jones has added hours to his bills. Singley did his billing prior to 2012 and knew of his adding hours at that time period. Sue Montgomery has been doing his recent billing.

On May 6, 2020 Susan Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels.

Montgomery said she was hired by Boucher & James in August 2007. She worked in the Accounting Department with Gaye Singley and Marilyn Unruh. Marilyn Unruh retired a couple of years ago and was replaced by Jessica

Martin. Montgomery was doing the billing for Jon Tresslar, David Jones and took over the billing for Mark Eisold from Unruh until Jessica Martin was trained to take over Eisold's billing.

Montgomery said on occasion she had been instructed by Project Managers or Managing Directors to add hours to a pre-bill that wasn't reflected on an employee's time sheet. Montgomery said the process is called "Labor Adjustments." Montgomery said Mark Eisold added hours regularly to achieve the three-factor. Eisold handled all the billing himself for his projects. Montgomery was unaware of Jon Tresslar adding hours to bills to achieve the three-factor. Montgomery said David Jones minimally added hours to his bills.

On May 8, 2020, Jessica Martin was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Martin said she was hired at Boucher & James in May of 2017. She spent a couple months being trained by Marilyn Unruh, in Accounts Payable and billing. She explained that a pre-bill or "Work in Progress" is prepared by accounting, which is the invoice for the time period, and given to the Project Manager for review. Accounting would use the cost and labor figures to determine the factor number, which would be written on the pre-bill before it was sent to the Project Manager. Martin was told by Marilyn Unruh to come up with a factor of three, but she didn't understand why. Mark Eisold would frequently add time to employees hours worked to increase the factor. This practice was known to Martin as a Labor Adjustment. Martin said if an employee worked a half hour on a particular project, Eisold would often handwrite +.50 or +.75 and accounting would add the time.

Several other current and former employees were also interviewed as part of the investigation. Michael Gable, the Director of Engineering Services, has been employed at Boucher and James for almost ten years. Gable has been the Project Manager of multiple projects, and is responsible for reviewing the pre-bills to make sure the hours billed are accurately reported. Between 2011 and 2013 Gable was approached by David Jones who asked Gable to consider doing what he referred to as "Value added billing" for a municipal project. Jones explained that you can bill up to a percentage of value for reviewing a project. Gable refused, telling Jones what Jones was suggesting was fraud. The projects are time and materials billing that are agreed to with the client in advance. Gable further told Jones that Jones recommendation was unethical and illegal. Gable made Jon Tresslar aware of his conversation with Jones and expressed his concerns about what he was asked to do.

Former Project Manager Amy Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Montgomery started working for Boucher and James in 1997 as a Project Engineer with a specialty in land development. In 1998 she became an Assistant Director, working under Mark Eisold. The majority of the clients were municipal clients at the time. Mark Eisold directed her to assist him with his billing. She was directed by Eisold to make the bills meet the three-factor. She said the three-factor was used to determine the profit of a particular project, and she was directed to add time worked to the project to increase the profit. Montgomery said she added time, usually in half hour increments, to pre-bills and gave them to Eisold, who added more time. As time went on Montgomery said she added hours that weren't worked to pre-bills to achieve the three-factor. When Eisold was finished making changes to the bills or approving her bills he would give them to Montgomery to take to the Accounting Department. Eisold had the final say on the finished version of the pre-bills. Montgomery recalled that Ross Boucher and Managing Director David Jones had particular interest in several clients and wanted to review the bills for projects worked for those clients. Montgomery said Ross Boucher and David Jones would normally add hours to the bills they reviewed.

On August 13, 2020, Special Agent Daniels interviewed David Horton, who said he started working for Boucher and James in 2004. Horton said he was a Project Manager who worked under Mark Eisold on municipal projects. Horton said that during his third year with the company he discovered that hours that weren't worked were being added to his invoices. He brought the matter to the attention of David Jones and Ross Boucher. In a subsequent meeting with Jones and Boucher over the practice of adding time, Jones promised Horton "We will look at this policy." Horton said he planned an exit strategy from Boucher and James and left the company approximately one year later.

On August 27, 2020, Affiant Buck conducted an interview with Jerry Gorski, owner of Gorski Engineering, about his professional interactions with Boucher and James. Gorski acknowledged that Gorski Engineering has worked with Boucher and James on multiple projects. Gorski said that Boucher and James worked with Richland Township, Bucks County on the township's construction review process and construction inspection. Gorski Engineering worked with Boucher and James on several projects in Richland Township, beginning in 2008/2009. Gorski found that Boucher and James was overbilling for Construction Inspections for the work being done in the Northfield Business Campus project. Boucher and James quickly exhausted their escrow accounts with Richland Township which created suspicion. Gorski conducted an internal investigation and had evidence to support his allegations. When he voiced his concerns, Ross Boucher came to Gorski Engineering uninvited and got into a heated discussion with Gorski. Once Gorski presented the evidence of theft that Gorski had uncovered to Boucher, Ross Boucher entered into a restitution agreement with Gorski.

FORENSIC ACCOUNTING

Forensic Accountants employed by the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General were provided with Boucher & James employee labor detail reports from 2009 - 2018. The Forensic Accountants were also provided with invoices, employee timesheets, project detail reports, and full access to the company's accounting and billing software system. The accountants found an overbilling scheme in which hours were billed to clients that were not generated on the Boucher & James employee time sheets.

During the time period from 2009 through 2018, the investigation identified overbilling and/or fictitious billing practices relating to more than 150 clients including multiple municipalities. The total amount of theft committed by Boucher & James, Inc. is estimated at $2,083,377. A summary of the losses suffered by clients is attached hereto.

Employees were awarded bonuses based on company performance. As a result of the overbilling scheme theft, the managing directors were awarded bonuses they would not otherwise have received from 2015 through 2018. In 2014, the Managing Directors received a larger bonus as a result of the theft.

Additionally, when the ESOP was created, the company shares were valued and purchased by the plan. As a result, the increased revenue due to theft prior to 2013 increased the value of the company for purposes of its conversion to the ESOP. Mark Eisold, David Jones and Judith Stern Goldstein were junior shareholders in Boucher & James before it became an ESOP. The increased value would have translated to Ross Boucher and the junior shareholders securing a higher sale price for the company upon conversion to the ESOP.

Based on the information received and the investigation conducted, I hereby respectfully request a warrant of arrest for MARK W. EISOLD on the charges listed within this complaint.

BOUCHER & JAMES, INC. BACKGROUND

Special Agent Joseph Daniels and your Affiant conducted an investigation into fraudulent overbilling practices at Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers ("Boucher and James").

Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers Corporate Headquarters is located at 1456 Ferry Road, Building 500, Doylestown, PA 18901. Regional Offices are located at 559 Main Street, Suite 230 Bethlehem, PA 18018, and at 2756 Rimrock Drive Stroudsburg PA18360. The company has approximately fifty employees, and offers a broad range of services, including land planning, civil engineering, landscape architecture, surveying, and building code compliance, to over thirty municipalities, including Boroughs, First and Second-Class Townships, and various Authorities in Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Montgomery, Monroe, Northampton, and Pike Counties. The Company also serves a large group of individuals, developers, institutions, and corporations in the private sector.

From 1962 until 2012 Boucher & James was a family-owned business. In 2012, the Company's sole proprietor, Ross Boucher, sold his interest in the Company to the Company's employees, whose ownership interests are governed by an Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP"). Ross Boucher then assumed a seat on the Board of Directors which he held until 2018. In that role, he received a salary from the Company.

Docket Number: Middle: Last: First: Defendant Name: DAVID R JONES

Since the company converted to an ESOP, it has been controlled by a volunteer Board of Directors that is required to meet once per year. Until May 2020, there were three Board members. They were Guy Marcozzi, Robert Kent, and Stephen G. Bardlsey Esq. These Board members were selected by Ross Boucher, and are his personal friends. In May, 2020 these Board members resigned and the Board was reconstituted.

Beginning with the creation of the ESOP in late 2012, Boucher & James' day-to-day operations were managed by four executive officers, each of whom held the title of Managing Director. The four Managing Directors had a defined area of responsibility outlined below. In 2020, David Jones, Judith Stern Goldstein and Mark Eisold have all resigned from their positions and left the company.

- Mark Eisold is a licensed Professional Engineer and was responsible for providing engineering services to the Company's municipal clients served out of the Doylestown office.
- Judith Stern Goldstein is a licensed and registered Landscape Architect and was responsible for providing services related to land planning and landscape architecture. Her administrative duties included overseeing the Company's Accounting Services Department and the Information Technology Department.
- David R. Jones worked out of the Doylestown office and was responsible for business development. His administrative duties included overseeing the Company's Building Codes Department and the Doylestown office administrative staff.
- Jon S. Tresslar is a licensed Professional Engineer and is also licensed as a Professional Land Surveyor. Tresslar is responsible for providing services to all of the Company's private-sector clients, including those served out of the Doylestown office, except for the small number of private sector clients served by Goldstein. Tresslar's administrative duties include overseeing the Company's Surveying Services Department and the Human Resources Department.

On October 29, 2018, Special Agent Daniels met with Jon Tresslar. Tresslar had been employed by Boucher & James since January 2011. Tresslar stated that in February 2018 he approached the Board of Directors and senior officers based upon a concern that billing practices at Boucher & James were causing some clients to be billed for work hours not performed. He believed that fictitious hours were being added to client invoices and *Continued  billed to clients to increase the revenue of the company. He took his concerns to the other Managing Directors and the Managing Directors refused to engage in a meaningful review of the billing practices.

		PULICE CRIMINAL COMPLAINT
Docket Number:	Date Filed: / /	OTN/LiveScan Number	Complaint/Incident Number 43-1521
Defendant Name:	First:	Middle: R	JONES

Boucher & James required all employees to submit timesheets for hours worked by project. These timesheets were submitted and reviewed by supervisors prior to posting to the timekeeping system. Once the timesheets were final, the information was used to create "pre-bills" in the accounting system, Deltek. These pre-bills were reviewed by the project managers and handwritten changes were noted on the pre-bills. These changes included transfers to move hours to a different project, write-offs and the addition of hours. After the changes were noted on the pre-bills, members of the Accounting Department would input the changes into Deltek. The edited version was then presented for final review to the Project Manager and the Managing Director if that was a different person.

KORMAN CORPORATION

Tresslar relayed that, in 2017, Eisold told him that he (Eisold) planned to perform a small amount of work for Korman Corporation, a private-sector client. Under Boucher & James's contracts with Korman, services were to be billed on a time-and-materials basis for actual hours worked. Because Korman was a private-sector client, Tresslar reviewed the bills sent by Eisold to Korman. Tresslar obtained the total fees generated for the hours worked by all employees on the Korman projects as reflected in the Project Detail Reports. Tresslar compared that number to the total fees billed to Korman for hours worked on the same projects, as reflected in the final invoices Boucher and James sent to Korman. The amount billed to Korman for hours worked was significantly higher than the total fees generated for hours worked on those same projects as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. Tresslar discovered that Eisold had overcharged Korman by approximately 25%.

After finding the discrepancy, Tresslar asked Gaye Singley, the head of the Accounting Department for Boucher and James, for backup documentation to support the bills that Eisold had sent to Korman. He was provided copies of Eisold's "draft bills," also known as pre-bills. In reviewing the documentation, Tresslar saw that Eisold had started with the computer printout of actual hours worked as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. However, next to the totals for various employees, including himself, Eisold had jotted down in his own handwriting certain numbers to be added to the totals. Tresslar performed a spot check of the raw timesheets that had been submitted by employees with the final invoices approved by Eisold. In each case, the spot check confirmed that the handwritten hours Eisold had added to the draft bill had never been documented on time sheets submitted by the employees. Eisold's fraudulent addition of hours went so far as to result in an employee, Tim Wallace, working 34 hours in a single day, September 22, 2017. Tresslar found numerous hours had been added for multiple employees unsupported by timesheets.

	POLICE CRIMINAL COMPLAIN
Docket Number:	Date Filed: O	OTN/LiveScan Number	Complaint/Incident Number 43-1521
Defendant Name:	First: DAVID	Middle:	Last: JONES

LOWER MAKEFIELD TOWNSHIP

Tresslar said all of Eisold's other clients were municipalities, whose invoices were paid with taxpayer dollars. Two of Eisold's largest clients were Lower Makefield Township in Bucks County and Springfield Township in Montgomery County. After finding the billing discrepancy with the work performed for Korman, Tresslar reviewed billing records for one of Eisold's projects for Lower Makefield Township. His analysis suggested that 38.25 hours of Eisold's billed time and 210.75 hours of other employee's billed time had never actually been worked. The hours represented a $14,321.00 fraudulent over-charge for a single project.

Tresslar said Eisold's billing amounts to approximately two million dollars per year, and approximately ten million dollars over the five years since the ESOP was founded. Of the two Eisold projects that Tresslar examined, Eisold's bills were inflated by 10% and 25%, respectively. A forensic accounting review of Lower Makefield project timesheets and invoices confirms overbilling by Boucher & James.

When Tresslar brought his findings to the attention of the other Managing Directors, one Managing Director, David Jones, told Tresslar, "I thought this had stopped."

On February 24, 2018, Tresslar prepared a memorandum detailing his findings and on February 27, 2018 Tresslar submitted a letter to the Board of Directors alerting them to the issues he had discovered and attaching his memorandum. On February 28, 2018, Ross Boucher sent an email advising that he was no longer Chairman of the Board of Directors.

THREE-FACTOR BILLING SCHEME

On April 7, 2020, Gaye Singley was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Singley said she was hired by Boucher and James in 1997, and became manager of the Accounting Department in 2005. Singley said Ross Boucher, the then owner and president of the company, instituted the three-factor for billing.

			POLICE CRIMINAL COMPLAINT
Docket Number:	Date Filed:	OTN/LiveScan Number	Complaint/Incident Number 43-1521
Defendant Name:	First:	Middle:	Last: IONES

The billing on projects was expected to be three times the cost of labor for a particular project. Singley explained that an employee making $50.00 an hour would be paid at his/her rate, but the client would be billed at $150.00 per hour for that employee's time. The three-factor expectation was in place when Singley started working at Boucher and James. The company switched to Deltek accounting software in 2009. She was trained to use the Deltek system and became the trainer for the company.

Adding hours that were not worked was one method used to reach the three-factor. As there is no cost to hours that were not worked, these hours will always increase the profit margin. Singley was told by Ross Boucher to find a way in Deltek to add hours to the invoices without adding them to the timesheets. She achieved this by creating a project number named Billing Billing Time Additions. Once the hours were added to the projects they would simultaneously be backed out of the Billing Billing Time Additions project number, thereby reconciling the employee's hours. Billing Billing Time Additions was a ficticious project.

Singley said timesheets are submitted to the Project Managers and then the Managing Directors for approval before being turned into the Accounting Department for posting. Pre-bills are created and are given to the Project Manager who marks up any changes in pen. When the pre-bills are sent to the Managing Director for approval, the Managing Director would be able to determine if the three-factor was achieved in the billing. The prior versions of the pre-bills are also provided to the Managing Director so they can see all of the changes that were made.

Singley said Mark Eisold was adding hours to his bills. Singley had done his billing in the past and has seen his invoices marked up during the 2012 – 2018 years. Singley said Eisold has aggressively added hours since she did his billing back in 1997. Singley said she talked to Ross Boucher about it and Judith Stern Goldstein about it multiple times. She received no feedback as a result of those conversations.

 Continued *****

Singley said David Jones has added hours to his bills. Singley did his billing prior to 2012 and knew of his adding hours at that time period. Sue Montgomery has been doing his recent billing.

On May 6, 2020 Susan Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels.

Montgomery said she was hired by Boucher & James in August 2007. She worked in the Accounting Department with Gaye Singley and Marilyn Unruh. Marilyn Unruh retired a couple of years ago and was replaced by Jessica

Martin. Montgomery was doing the billing for Jon Tresslar, David Jones and took over the billing for Mark Eisold from Unruh until Jessica Martin was trained to take over Eisold's billing.

Montgomery said on occasion she had been instructed by Project Managers or Managing Directors to add hours to a pre-bill that wasn't reflected on an employee's time sheet. Montgomery said the process is called "Labor Adjustments." Montgomery said Mark Eisold added hours regularly to achieve the three-factor. Eisold handled all the billing himself for his projects. Montgomery was unaware of Jon Tresslar adding hours to bills to achieve the three-factor. Montgomery said David Jones minimally added hours to his bills.

On May 8, 2020, Jessica Martin was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Martin said she was hired at Boucher & James in May of 2017. She spent a couple months being trained by Marilyn Unruh, in Accounts Payable and billing. She explained that a pre-bill or "Work in Progress" is prepared by accounting, which is the invoice for the time period, and given to the Project Manager for review. Accounting would use the cost and labor figures to determine the factor number, which would be written on the pre-bill before it was sent to the Project Manager. Martin was told by Marilyn Unruh to come up with a factor of three, but she didn't understand why. Mark Eisold would frequently add time to employees hours worked to increase the factor. This practice was known to Martin as a Labor Adjustment. Martin said if an employee worked a half hour on a particular project, Eisold would often handwrite +.50 or +.75 and accounting would add the time.

Several other current and former employees were also interviewed as part of the investigation. Michael Gable, the Director of Engineering Services, has been employed at Boucher and James for almost ten years. Gable has been the Project Manager of multiple projects, and is responsible for reviewing the pre-bills to make sure the hours billed are accurately reported. Between 2011 and 2013 Gable was approached by David Jones who asked Gable to consider doing what he referred to as "Value added billing" for a municipal project. Jones explained that you can bill up to a percentage of value for reviewing a project. Gable refused, telling Jones what Jones was suggesting was fraud. The projects are time and materials billing that are agreed to with the client in advance. Gable further told Jones that Jones recommendation was unethical and illegal. Gable made Jon Tresslar aware of his conversation with Jones and expressed his concerns about what he was asked to do.

Former Project Manager Amy Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Montgomery started working for Boucher and James in 1997 as a Project Engineer with a specialty in land development. In 1998 she became an Assistant Director, working under Mark Eisold. The majority of the clients were municipal clients at the time. Mark Eisold directed her to assist him with his billing. She was directed by Eisold to make the bills meet the three-factor. She said the three-factor was used to determine the profit of a particular project, and she was directed to add time worked to the project to increase the profit. Montgomery said she added time, usually in half hour increments, to pre-bills and gave them to Eisold, who added more time. As time went on Montgomery said she added hours that weren't worked to pre-bills to achieve the three-factor. When Eisold was finished making changes to the bills or approving her bills he would give them to Montgomery to take to the Accounting Department. Eisold had the final say on the finished version of the pre-bills. Montgomery recalled that Ross Boucher and Managing Director David Jones had particular interest in several clients and wanted to review the bills for projects worked for those clients. Montgomery said Ross Boucher and David Jones would normally add hours to the bills they reviewed.

On August 13, 2020, Special Agent Daniels interviewed David Horton, who said he started working for Boucher and James in 2004. Horton said he was a Project Manager who worked under Mark Eisold on municipal projects. Horton said that during his third year with the company he discovered that hours that weren't worked were being added to his invoices. He brought the matter to the attention of David Jones and Ross Boucher. In a subsequent meeting with Jones and Boucher over the practice of adding time, Jones promised Horton "We will look at this policy." Horton said he planned an exit strategy from Boucher and James and left the company approximately one year later.

On August 27, 2020, Affiant Buck conducted an interview with Jerry Gorski, owner of Gorski Engineering, about his professional interactions with Boucher and James. Gorski acknowledged that Gorski Engineering has worked with Boucher and James on multiple projects. Gorski said that Boucher and James worked with Richland Township, Bucks County on the township's construction review process and construction inspection. Gorski Engineering worked with Boucher and James on several projects in Richland Township, beginning in 2008/2009. Gorski found that Boucher and James was overbilling for Construction Inspections for the work being done in the Northfield Business Campus project. Boucher and James quickly exhausted their escrow accounts with Richland Township which created suspicion. Gorski conducted an internal investigation and had evidence to support his allegations. When he voiced his concerns, Ross Boucher came to Gorski Engineering uninvited and got into a heated discussion with Gorski. Once Gorski presented the evidence of theft that Gorski had uncovered to Boucher, Ross Boucher entered into a restitution agreement with Gorski.

FORENSIC ACCOUNTING

Forensic Accountants employed by the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General were provided with Boucher & James employee labor detail reports from 2009 – 2018. The Forensic Accountants were also provided with invoices, employee timesheets, project detail reports, and full access to the company's accounting and billing software system. The accountants found an overbilling scheme in which hours were billed to clients that were not generated on the Boucher & James employee time sheets.

 Continued *****

During the time period from 2009 through 2018, the investigation identified overbilling and/or fictitious billing practices relating to more than 150 clients including multiple municipalities. The total amount of theft committed by Boucher & James, Inc. is estimated at $2,083,377. A summary of the losses suffered by clients is attached hereto.

Employees were awarded bonuses based on company performance. As a result of the overbilling scheme theft, the managing directors were awarded bonuses they would not otherwise have received from 2015 through 2018. In 2014, the Managing Directors received a larger bonus as a result of the theft.

Additionally, when the ESOP was created, the company shares were valued and purchased by the plan. As a result, the increased revenue due to theft prior to 2013 increased the value of the company for purposes of its conversion to the ESOP. Mark Eisold, David Jones and Judith Stern Goldstein were junior shareholders in Boucher & James before it became an ESOP. The increased value would have translated to Ross Boucher and the junior shareholders securing a higher sale price for the company upon conversion to the ESOP.

Based on the information received and the investigation conducted, I hereby respectfully request a warrant of arrest for DAVID R. JONES on the charges listed within this complaint.

I, S.A. WENDELL A BUCK JR, BEING DULY SWORN ACCORDING TO THE LAW, DEPOSE AND SAY THAT THE FACTS SET FORTH IN THE FOREGOING AFFIDAVIT ARE TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE, INFORMATION AND BELIEF.

I CERTIFY THAT THIS FILING COMPLIES WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE CASE RECORDS PUBLIC ACCESS POLICY OF THE UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF PENNSYLVANIA THAT REQUIRE FILING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS DIFFERENTLY THAT NON-CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS.

Introduction of Affiant - Special Agent Wendell A. Buck Jr.

Your Affiant is a sworm Special Agent employed by the Pennsylvania Office Attorney General, Bureau of Criminal Investigations, and assigned to the Criminal Prosecution Section. As a Special Agent, your Affiant's primary duties are to investigate crimes, interview suspects and witnesses, prepare and execute search warrants, file criminal complaints and make arrests for the criminal activity reported to the Office of Attorney General. Your Affiant has over twenty-four years of law enforcement experience and prior to my employment with the Office of Attorney General was a Criminal Investigator with the City of Reading Police Department in Berks County Pennsylvania. # BOUCHER & JAMES, INC. BACKGROUND

Special Agent Joseph Daniels and your Affiant conducted an investigation into fraudulent overbilling practices at Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers ("Boucher and James").

Boucher & James Inc. Consulting Engineers Corporate Headquarters is located at 1456 Ferry Road, Building 500, Doylestown, PA 18901. Regional Offices are located at 559 Main Street, Suite 230 Bethlehem, PA 18018, and at 2756 Rimrock Drive Stroudsburg PA18360. The company has approximately fifty employees, and offers a broad range of services, including land planning, civil engineering, landscape architecture, surveying, and building code compliance, to over thirty municipalities, including Boroughs, First and Second-Class Townships, and various Authorities in Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Montgomery, Monroe, Northampton, and Pike Counties. The Company also serves a large group of individuals, developers, institutions, and corporations in the private sector.

From 1962 until 2012 Boucher & James was a family-owned business. In 2012, the Company's sole proprietor, Ross Boucher, sold his interest in the Company to the Company's employees, whose ownership interests are governed by an Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP"). Ross Boucher then assumed a seat on the Board of Directors which he held until 2018. In that role, he received a salary from the Company.

Defendant Name:	First:	Middle:	Last: BOUCHER

Since the company converted to an ESOP, it has been controlled by a volunteer Board of Directors that is required to meet once per year. Until May 2020, there were three Board members. They were Guy Marcozzi, Robert Kent, and Stephen G. Bardlsey Esq. These Board members were selected by Ross Boucher, and are his personal friends. In May, 2020 these Board members resigned and the Board was reconstituted.

Beginning with the creation of the ESOP in late 2012, Boucher & James' day-to-day operations were managed by four executive officers, each of whom held the title of Managing Director. The four Managing Directors had a defined area of responsibility outlined below. In 2020, David Jones, Judith Stern Goldstein and Mark Eisold have all resigned from their positions and left the company.

- Mark Eisold is a licensed Professional Engineer and was responsible for providing engineering services to the Company's municipal clients served out of the Doylestown office.
- Judith Stem Goldstein is a licensed and registered Landscape Architect and was responsible for providing services related to land planning and landscape architecture. Her administrative duties
  included overseeing the Company's Accounting Services Department and the Information Technology Department.
- David R. Jones worked out of the Doylestown office and was responsible for business development.
   His administrative duties included overseeing the Company's Building Codes Department and the Doylestown office administrative staff.
- Jon S. Tresslar is a licensed Professional Engineer and is also licensed as a Professional Land Surveyor. Tresslar is responsible for providing services to all of the Company's private-sector clients, including those served out of the Doylestown office, except for the small number of private sector clients served by Goldstein. Tresslar's administrative duties include overseeing the Company's Surveying Services Department and the Human Resources Department.

On October 29, 2018, Special Agent Daniels met with Jon Tresslar. Tresslar had been employed by Boucher & James since January 2011. Tresslar stated that in February 2018 he approached the Board of Directors and senior officers based upon a concern that billing practices at Boucher & James were causing some clients to be billed for work hours not performed. He believed that fictitious hours were being added to client invoices and billed to clients to increase the revenue of the company. He took his concerns to the other Managing Directors and the Managing Directors refused to engage in a meaningful review of the billing practices.

Boucher & James required all employees to submit timesheets for hours worked by project. These timesheets were submitted and reviewed by supervisors prior to posting to the timekeeping system. Once the timesheets were final, the information was used to create "pre-bills" in the accounting system, Deltek. These pre-bills were reviewed by the project managers and handwritten changes were noted on the pre-bills. These changes included transfers to move hours to a different project, write-offs and the addition of hours. After the changes were noted on the pre-bills, members of the Accounting Department would input the changes into Deltek. The edited version was then presented for final review to the Project Manager and the Managing Director if that was a different person.

KORMAN CORPORATION

Tresslar relayed that, in 2017, Eisold told him that he (Eisold) planned to perform a small amount of work for Korman Corporation, a private-sector client. Under Boucher & James's contracts with Korman, services were to be billed on a time-and-materials basis for actual hours worked. Because Korman was a private-sector client, Tresslar reviewed the bills sent by Eisold to Korman. Tresslar obtained the total fees generated for the hours worked by all employees on the Korman projects as reflected in the Project Detail Reports. Tresslar compared that number to the total fees billed to Korman for hours worked on the same projects, as reflected in the final invoices Boucher and James sent to Korman. The amount billed to Korman for hours worked was significantly higher than the total fees generated for hours worked on those same projects as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. Tresslar discovered that Eisold had overcharged Korman by approximately 25%.

After finding the discrepancy, Tresslar asked Gaye Singley, the head of the Accounting Department for Boucher and James, for backup documentation to support the bills that Eisold had sent to Korman. He was provided copies of Eisold's "draft bills," also known as pre-bills. In reviewing the documentation, Tresslar saw that Eisold had started with the computer printout of actual hours worked as reflected in Korman's Project Detail Reports. However, next to the totals for various employees, including himself, Eisold had jotted down in his own handwriting certain numbers to be added to the totals. Tresslar performed a spot check of the raw timesheets that had been submitted by employees with the final invoices approved by Eisold. In each case, the spot check confirmed that the handwritten hours Eisold had added to the draft bill had never been documented on time sheets submitted by the employees. Eisold's fraudulent addition of hours went so far as to result in an employee, Tim Wallace, working 34 hours in a single day, September 22, 2017. Tresslar found numerous hours had been added for multiple employees unsupported by timesheets.

Tresslar discussed his findings Gaye Singley, who told Tresslar that many of Eisold's bills contained similar entries. Singley said, "He adds hours all the time."

LOWER MAKEFIELD TOWNSHIP

Tresslar said all of Eisold's other clients were municipalities, whose invoices were paid with taxpayer dollars. Two of Eisold's largest clients were Lower Makefield Township in Bucks County and Springfield Township in Montgomery County. After finding the billing discrepancy with the work performed for Korman, Tresslar reviewed billing records for one of Eisold's projects for Lower Makefield Township. His analysis suggested that 38.25 hours of Eisold's billed time and 210.75 hours of other employee's billed time had never actually been worked. The hours represented a $14,321.00 fraudulent over-charge for a single project.

Tresslar said Eisold's billing amounts to approximately two million dollars per year, and approximately ten million dollars over the five years since the ESOP was founded. Of the two Eisold projects that Tresslar examined, Eisold's bills were inflated by 10% and 25%, respectively. A forensic accounting review of Lower Makefield project timesheets and invoices confirms overbilling by Boucher & James.

When Tresslar brought his findings to the attention of the other Managing Directors, one Managing Director, David Jones, told Tresslar, "I thought this had stopped."

On February 24, 2018, Tresslar prepared a memorandum detailing his findings and on February 27, 2018 Tresslar submitted a letter to the Board of Directors alerting them to the issues he had discovered and attaching his memorandum. On February 28, 2018, Ross Boucher sent an email advising that he was no longer Chairman of the Board of Directors.

THREE-FACTOR BILLING SCHEME

On April 7, 2020, Gaye Singley was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Singley said she was hired by Boucher and James in 1997, and became manager of the Accounting Department in 2005. Singley said Ross Boucher, the then owner and president of the company, instituted the three-factor for billing.

Defendant Name:	First: ROSS	Middle: G	Last: BOUCHER

The billing on projects was expected to be three times the cost of labor for a particular project. Singley explained that an employee making $50.00 an hour would be paid at his/her rate, but the client would be billed at $150.00 per hour for that employee's time. The three-factor expectation was in place when Singley started working at Boucher and James. The company switched to Deltek accounting software in 2009. She was trained to use the Deltek system and became the trainer for the company.

Adding hours that were not worked was one method used to reach the three-factor. As there is no cost to hours that were not worked, these hours will always increase the profit margin. Singley was told by Ross Boucher to find a way in Deltek to add hours to the invoices without adding them to the timesheets. She achieved this by creating a project number named Billing Billing Time Additions. Once the hours were added to the projects they would simultaneously be backed out of the Billing Billing Time Additions project number, thereby reconciling the employee's hours. Billing Billing Time Additions was a ficticious project.

Singley said timesheets are submitted to the Project Managers and then the Managing Directors for approval before being turned into the Accounting Department for posting. Pre-bills are created and are given to the Project Manager who marks up any changes in pen. When the pre-bills are sent to the Managing Director for approval, the Managing Director would be able to determine if the three-factor was achieved in the billing. The prior versions of the pre-bills are also provided to the Managing Director so they can see all of the changes that were made.

Singley said Mark Eisold was adding hours to his bills. Singley had done his billing in the past and has seen his invoices marked up during the 2012 - 2018 years. Singley said Eisold has aggressively added hours since she did his billing back in 1997. Singley said she talked to Ross Boucher about it and Judith Stern Goldstein about it multiple times. She received no feedback as a result of those conversations.

 Continued *****

Singley said David Jones has added hours to his bills. Singley did his billing prior to 2012 and knew of his adding hours at that time period. Sue Montgomery has been doing his recent billing.

On May 6, 2020 Susan Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels.

Montgomery said she was hired by Boucher & James in August 2007. She worked in the Accounting Department with Gaye Singley and Marilyn Unruh. Marilyn Unruh retired a couple of years ago and was replaced by Jessica

Martin. Montgomery was doing the billing for Jon Tresslar, David Jones and took over the billing for Mark Eisold from Unruh until Jessica Martin was trained to take over Eisold's billing.

Montgomery said on occasion she had been instructed by Project Managers or Managing Directors to add hours to a pre-bill that wasn't reflected on an employee's time sheet. Montgomery said the process is called "Labor Adjustments." Montgomery said Mark Eisold added hours regularly to achieve the three-factor. Eisold handled all the billing himself for his projects. Montgomery was unaware of Jon Tresslar adding hours to bills to achieve the three-factor. Montgomery said David Jones minimally added hours to his bills.

On May 8, 2020, Jessica Martin was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Martin said she was hired at Boucher & James in May of 2017. She spent a couple months being trained by Marilyn Unruh, in Accounts Payable and billing. She explained that a pre-bill or "Work in Progress" is prepared by accounting, which is the invoice for the time period, and given to the Project Manager for review. Accounting would use the cost and labor figures to determine the factor number, which would be written on the pre-bill before it was sent to the Project Manager. Martin was told by Marilyn Unruh to come up with a factor of three, but she didn't understand why. Mark Eisold would frequently add time to employees hours worked to increase the factor. This practice was known to Martin as a Labor Adjustment. Martin said if an employee worked a half hour on a particular project, Eisold would often handwrite +.50 or +.75 and accounting would add the time.

Several other current and former employees were also interviewed as part of the investigation. Michael Gable, the Director of Engineering Services, has been employed at Boucher and James for almost ten years. Gable has been the Project Manager of multiple projects, and is responsible for reviewing the pre-bills to make sure the hours billed are accurately reported. Between 2011 and 2013 Gable was approached by David Jones who asked Gable to consider doing what he referred to as "Value added billing" for a municipal project. Jones explained that you can bill up to a percentage of value for reviewing a project. Gable refused, telling Jones what Jones was suggesting was fraud. The projects are time and materials billing that are agreed to with the client in advance. Gable further told Jones that Jones recommendation was unethical and illegal. Gable made Jon Tresslar aware of his conversation with Jones and expressed his concerns about what he was asked to do.

Former Project Manager Amy Montgomery was interviewed by Your Affiant and Special Agent Daniels. Montgomery started working for Boucher and James in 1997 as a Project Engineer with a specialty in land development. In 1998 she became an Assistant Director, working under Mark Eisold. The majority of the clients

Were municipal clients at the time. Mark Eisold directed her to assist him with his billing. She was directed by Eisold to make the bills meet the three-factor. She said the three-factor was used to determine the profit of a particular project, and she was directed to add time worked to the project to increase the profit. Montgomery said she added time, usually in half hour increments, to pre-bills and gave them to Eisold, who added more time. As time went on Montgomery said she added hours that weren't worked to pre-bills to achieve the three-factor. When Eisold was finished making changes to the bills or approving her bills he would give them to Montgomery to take to the Accounting Department. Eisold had the final say on the finished version of the pre-bills. Montgomery recalled that Ross Boucher and Managing Director David Jones had particular interest in several clients and wanted to review the bills for projects worked for those clients. Montgomery said Ross Boucher and David Jones would normally add hours to the bills they reviewed.

On July 14, 2020, Your Affiant interviewed Charles Dietz former employee of Boucher and James. Dietz said he was hired in 2005 hired a construction inspector. Dietz went to construction sites to see if the work was being done to consistent with the plans. Eventually he became a supervisor of the inspectors. Dietz reported to Dave Horton initially and when Horton left the company he reported to Mark Eisold. Time sheets were given to the office manager, Collette Gerstenburg, who submitted them to David Horton for approval. Mark Eisold told him personally that he (Eisold) didn't want any unbillable time on his time sheet. He explained that, during inclement weather, he was instructed to find jobs and bill for Erosion and Scttlement Control even if he didn't go to the site and perform an inspection. For example, if he inspected a strip mall site in Township "A" that took 2 hours, Eisold expected him to bill another 2 hours for inspecting a site in Township "B" even though he never went to that site. Dietz questioned Eisold on that practice and Eisold told him not to question him and that was how it is done. This practice was discovered by some of the contractors who were on the job sites and didn't see any inspectors there on the dates that were billed. This happened more than once, and Dietz referred all questions to Mark Eisold. Dietz said Dave Horton left Boucher & James because of these improper billing practices.

On August 13, 2020, Special Agent Daniels interviewed David Horton, who said he started working for Boucher and James in 2004. Horton said he was a Project Manager who worked under Mark Eisold on municipal projects. Horton said that during his third year with the company he discovered that hours that weren't worked were being added to his invoices. He brought the matter to the attention of David Jones and Ross Boucher. In a subsequent meeting with Jones and Boucher over the practice of adding time, Jones promised Horton "We will look at this policy." Horton said he planned an exit strategy from Boucher and James and left the company approximately one year later.

On August 27, 2020, Affiant Buck conducted an interview with Jerry Gorski, owner of Gorski Engineering, about his professional interactions with Boucher and James. Gorski acknowledged that Gorski Engineering has worked with Boucher and James on multiple projects. Gorski said that Boucher and James worked with Richland Township, Bucks County on the township's construction review process and construction inspection. Gorski Engineering worked with Boucher and James on several projects in Richland Township, beginning in 2008/2009. Gorski found that Boucher and James was overbilling for Construction Inspections for the work being done in the Northfield Business Campus project. Boucher and James quickly exhausted their escrow accounts with Richland Township which created suspicion. Gorski conducted an internal investigation and had evidence to support his allegations. When he voiced his concerns, Ross Boucher came to Gorski Engineering uninvited and got into a heated discussion with Gorski. Once Gorski presented the evidence of theft that Gorski had uncovered to Boucher, Ross Boucher entered into a restitution agreement with Gorski.

FORENSIC ACCOUNTING

Forensic Accountants employed by the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General were provided with Boucher & James employee labor detail reports from 2009 – 2018. The Forensic Accountants were also provided with invoices, employee timesheets, project detail reports, and full access to the company's accounting and billing software system. The accountants found an overbilling scheme in which hours were billed to clients that were not generated on the Boucher & James employee time sheets.

 Continued *****

During the time period from 2009 through 2018, the investigation identified overbilling and/or fictitious billing practices relating to more than 150 clients including multiple municipalities. The total amount of theft committed by Boucher & James, Inc. is estimated at $2,083,377. A summary of the losses suffered by clients is attached hereto.

Employees were awarded bonuses based on company performance. As a result of the overbilling scheme theft, the managing directors were awarded bonuses they would not otherwise have received from 2015 through 2018. In 2014, the Managing Directors received a larger bonus as a result of the theft.

Additionally, when the ESOP was created, the company shares were valued and purchased by the plan. As a result, the increased revenue due to theft prior to 2013 increased the value of the company for purposes of its conversion to the ESOP. Mark Eisold, David Jones and Judith Stern Goldstein were junior shareholders in Boucher & James before it became an ESOP. The increased value would have translated to Ross Boucher and the junior shareholders securing a higher sale price for the company upon conversion to the ESOP.

Based on the information received and the investigation conducted, I hereby respectfully request a warrant of arrest for ROSS BOUCHER on the charges listed within this complaint.
